St. Louis County Library's commitment to serving the region was stronger than ever in 2023. The Community Resource Initiative launched, placing social workers in five St. Louis County Library branches. By the end of 2023, over 500 individuals received assistance with housing, utilities, mental health, food, accessing public benefits and more. SLCL partnered with community organizations to offer new and innovative programs like the Hip Hop Block Party, Potty Training 101, the 44th Annual St. Louis Storytelling Festival and the Community Wellness Hub series with BJC Healthcare.

In 2024, four new bookmobiles will hit the road, offering a diverse selection of materials for students around St. Louis County. Also next year, the new Clark Family Branch will open in Ladue. This stunning, two-story building includes an 800-seat event space, interactive spaces for kids and teens, a Genealogy Center, an outdoor plaza, and much more.
