

URSULINE ACADEMY'S
11th GRADE SUMMER READING LIST

Each student attending Ursuline Academy is required to read during the summer in preparation for her English classes the following year. We have tried to gather a list encompassing all genres--the novel, poetry, drama, and the biography--many tastes and varying reading abilities.

Each student must read two (2) books from the list during the summer: one is required; the other is the student's choice. The student will be held accountable for her reading in the form of a test on the required book the student will take in the first week of class, and a written essay on the text chosen from the list. All assignments will be completed in the first two weeks of the semester and will be assigned a grade.

In the eleventh grade students must read LEFT TO TELL by Immaculee Ilibagiza

All students in the eleventh grade must also choose one book from the list below:

Jiles	Enemy Women
Kingsolver	Animal Dreams
Tyler	Accidental Tourist
Hemingway	A Farewell to Arms
Erdrich	The Painted Drum
Hughes	Lenox Avenue Mural
Frazier	Cold Mountain
Tan	The Kitchen God's Wife
Wharton	Age of Innocence
Haruf	The Tie that Binds
Ehrenreich	Nickle and Dimed
