Hometown Can Be A Great Vacation Destination

St. Louis County Library presents Kimberlee Riley, director of programs for the Jefferson National Parks Association, who will discuss “Real Getaways in your Hometown.” The program will be presented on Monday, July 23, at 7 p.m. at the Grand Glaize Branch, 1010 Meramec Station Road, in Manchester and on Wednesday, July 25, at 6:30 p.m. at the Eureka Hills Branch, 103 Hilltop Village Center, in Eureka. The programs are free and open to the public.

Riley can help you find some of the hassle-free, affordable, family-friendly getaways and world-class attractions within 50 miles of St. Louis. In her presentation Riley will cover recreational opportunities, nature and cultural experiences, and history and educational adventures. She will also recommend itineraries and review information on events and activities so you can plan a mini-vacation for every season. Riley will look at the hidden treasures that our public lands have to offer and explore the surprising opportunities that await you in your own backyard.

For more information contact the Grand Glaize Branch at 636-225-6454 or the Eureka Hills Branch at 636-938-4520.

Program sites are accessible. Upon two weeks notice, accommodations will be made for persons with disabilities. Contact St. Louis County Library by phone 314-994-3300, (TDD/TTY) 314-994-9255 or visit www.slcl.org.
