Meet Author Howard Frank Mosher At Library Headquarters

St. Louis County Library Foundation presents author Howard Frank Mosher who will discuss his new book, "On Kingdom Mountain," Monday, Aug. 6, at 7 p.m. at Library Headquarters, 1640 S. Lindbergh Blvd. The program is free and open to the public.

Set in northern Vermont in 1930, "On Kingdom Mountain" recounts the life and times of Miss Jane Hubbell Kinneson. A renowned local librarian and bird carver, she is the last resident and sole guardian of a remote and wild mountain marked for destruction by a proposed new superhighway.

Mosher is the author of 10 books, including "Waiting for Teddy Williams," "The True Account," and "A Stranger in the Kingdom," which was a co-recipient of the New England Book Award for fiction. Mosher has received a Guggenheim fellowship and a National Endowment for the Arts fellowship, the American Academy of Arts and Letters Literature Award, and the American Civil Liberties Union Award for Excellence in the Arts.

Mosher will be available to answer questions and sign books following his presentation. Copies of the book will be available for purchase after the program from Left Bank Books.
