Bob Rubright Talks About Walks and Trails in St. Louis County

The St. Louis County Library Weber Road Branch presents cultural historian and author Bob Rubright who will talk about some of St. Louis' most interesting walks and trails in St. Louis County and the surrounding area on Saturday, Sept. 15, at 2 p.m. at the Weber Road Branch, 4444 Weber Road. Rubright, who has hiked all over the world, will share his favorite trails close to home. His books include, "Walks and Rambles in St. Louis," and "Weekend Walks in St. Louis and Beyond." The program is free and open to the public. For more information, call 314-638-2210.

This program is one in a series of free health and fitness programs that will be held throughout the year at the South County branch locations of the St. Louis County Library. For more information, click on Walkabout\Readabout: A Walking and Reading Program at www.slcl.org.

Program sites are accessible. Upon two weeks notice, accommodations will be made for persons with disabilities. Contact St. Louis County Library by phone 314-994-3300, (TDD/TTY) 314-994-9255 or e-mail www.slcl.org.
