

St. Louis County Library News Release: November 9, 2009
Contact: Jennifer McBride, 314-994-3300 ext 2250 or jmcbride@slcl.org

Urban Fiction Favorite Keisha Ervin to visit Florissant Valley

St. Louis author Keisha Ervin will visit the Florissant Valley Branch of St. Louis County Library on Wednesday, December 9 at 6:30 p.m. Ms. Ervin will discuss her six books at the program, which is free and open to the public. Light refreshments will be served. The Florissant Valley Branch is located at 195 New Florissant Rd. South.

Since the publication of her first book in 2004, Keisha Ervin has become a star of the urban lit genre. Like many others, Ms. Ervin uses her own experience and awareness of urban culture to imbue her books with characters and situations her readers can recognize and identify with. Hailing from St. Louis, Keisha Ervin is a prolific writer and devoted mother. She is the author of the national bestsellers "Me & My Boyfriend," "Chyna Black," "Mina's Joint," "Hold U Down," "Torn," and "Finding Forever." Her latest novel is the highly anticipated "Gunz and Roses." Keisha Ervin is currently hard at work on her eighth novel.

For more information please call 314/994-3300.

Program sites are accessible. Upon two weeks notice, accommodations will be made for persons with disabilities. Contact St. Louis County Library by phone 314-994-3300 or visit www.slcl.org.

###